MEDIA ADVISORY (7.14.15)

Healing Huntington community conversation — tonight

- WHO: United Way of the River Cities and partners
- WHAT: Healing Huntington community conversation
- WHEN/WHERE: Tuesday, July 14 at 5:30 p.m. at the Cabell County Public Library (455 9th Street in Huntington).
- WHY: These “Chat-‘N-Chew”-style meetings occur the second Tuesday of the month and arose after two community conversations in April and May. There is not a set agenda for these meetings. Individuals are encouraged to attend to learn more about what is happening in Huntington related to drugs and addiction, and to bring ideas about strategies and practices that could create solutions.
- Everyone is encouraged to join these meetings and become part of the solution.
- MORE INFORMATION: Media are invited to attend. For more information, contact Kaylin Adkins at 304-523-8929, ext. 113 or kaylin.adkins@unitedwayrivercities.org.

About United Way of the River Cities:

*United Way of the River Cities partners with our diverse and united community to solve its greatest issues. United Way supports programs and strategies that address critical issues in the Focus Areas of Education, Income, Health and Safety-Net Services. This support is in the form of fundraising, grant writing and convening partnerships. When donors invest in United Way of the River Cities, they can be confident that their dollars will remain local to help change the lives of people in Cabell, Wayne, Lincoln and Mason counties in West Virginia and Lawrence County, Ohio. Contributions will be invested in the best programs and strategies to get the best results for the community.
